$25 Registration Fee $20 Registration Fee (if you have your own equipment)

Rules

For a $25 entry fee you get a video camera, 1 DV tapes an IMAC editing station. (Final Cut Xpress, IMovie). If you use your own equipment, the entry fee is $20.

(Extra lights, tripods or other equipment can be rented as needed, Note: Items will be rented on a first come first served basis)

- Filmmakers may work individually or in teams
- The films can be of any genre (drama, documentary, comedy, experimental, animation)
- Maximum length, 10 minutes. (There is no minimum length)

The competition begins at 5:30 pm on Friday with a short demo of all the KIAC gear (mandatory). Participants will then be assigned cameras and editing stations. Editing stations will be set up in the KIAC classroom and will be available all weekend.

Participants must hand in a final DV tape or quicktime file Sunday at 5:30 pm. (No exceptions). Participants may use their own cameras/editing systems if they choose. Out of town participants can upload their film to You Tube or Vimeo or send them to use via an ftp site. We must have the link by 5:30 pm on Sunday.

All material used in the films must be owned by the filmmaker. Any copyrighted materials included in the work must have been legally cleared for use.

KIAC is permitted to retain the submitted video for inclusion in our non-circulating library (archives).

All films will be shown at a 7:30 pm screening on Sunday evening. A winning entry will be decided upon by a jury. The winning entry will be screened at the 11th Dawson City International Film Festival. An Audience Award will also be presented.

The film will also be screened at an festival fund raiser one week after the film festival.

I agree that my film may also be shown as part of a package on Whitehorse Cable 9 and/or Dawson City Cable 12.

The person signing this form agrees to all the above conditions.

Films will be eligible to apply to the Dawson City International Short Film Festival as late entries by submitting the proper application forms and their film by February 3rd, 2012.
